

Diamond

An exhibition of handmade textiles by the London Guild of Weavers, Spinner and Dyers

Waterloo Action Centre, 14 Baylis Road, London SE1 7AA (Just behind Waterloo station.)

Admission free. Monday 4– Saturday 9 October 2010, 11am-6pm daily.

Private view/ open evening (by invitation) 6.30pm-9pm Monday 4 October.

www.londonguildofweavers.org.uk – celebrating its 60th anniversary in 2010

The London Guild of Weavers, Spinners and Dyers is a group of enthusiastic amateurs and professional craftspeople who embrace a wide range of textile skills – spinning, natural and synthetic dyeing, braiding, tapestry and weaving for clothing, furnishings, fine art and rugs. Exhibits will include many diamond-themed items, as well as a special display of hats from handspun yarns, showcasing members' innovative and traditional skills. Many items will be available for sale.